My big brother is the coolest, kindest, most funnest big brother in the world. It's like he's my real brother. He takes me out to the funnest places here. He also lets me pick where we go. We are a team together. My get along really well together. I feel safe around him. When ever I'm feeling down or have a problem I know I can always talk to him about it. He always always listens and doesn't go "Oh shut up already". Cory has a big heart and a great personality. Some of the fun places he's brought me to is snowboarding, planetarium, and many many more. I know I got the best Big Brother I ever had.

Thank you Cory
